AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE
TO ALL EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Dear Ministers,

January 26, 2018

Attached is the schedule for February.

Just as a reminder - due to the peak flu season, we will not be administering the Sacred Blood. You will notice the CUP positions have been eliminated. As soon as it is felt that the flu is on a downslide, the cup positions will be reinstated.

Just as a reminder – Ash Wednesday is February 14th.
(Yes Valentine’s Day!!)

All “Weekly” Eucharistic Ministers will have first preference for distribution of Ashes. Weekend Ministers who are in attendance at the Ash Wednesday Mass should check with the Priest assigned to see if assistance is needed

This weekend (January 27th/28th) I will be posting an Ash Wednesday schedule form for the Weekly Ministers to sign up if they wish to distribute Ashes,

I will be contacting you shortly regarding your availability for Holy Week. So please start thinking about your availability.

Thank you.

Joan Di Marco
